Dedication

With deep admiration we the Senior Class of 1960, dedicate our RENO-CAHI to MR. W. R. WHITTENTON

He is always ready to give a helping hand. He stands firmly behind anyone in the right and treats everyone fairly. His students will always remember him for his good nature, patience, quick wit, and friendship.

Prophecy

General Hospital
New York City, New York
June 12, 1970

Dear Judy,

I am now back in New York at General Hospital after two years in Japan with DuPont, Inc. I loved my work and the travel, but it is good to be back in the United States, too.

I've just returned from our tenth anniversary reunion of the Class of '60 in Reidsville. I was so sorry you could not be there. However, I know the joy of little Judy's arrival more than compensated.

We met at Gourmet Restaurant, a swanky place on the by-pass, owned and operated by James Bramlett and Jerry Swain. Of course, Larry Somers, class president, and now a business executive, and Kenneth Briggs, student council president, now a Wake Forest basketball coach, presided and welcomed everyone. Darrell Myrick and Brenda Candler, whose concerts I'm sure you have read about, led the group in singing the Reidsville High School song. Since so many of us have lost contact with each other, Larry asked each one to tell what he was doing.

We have a number of teachers. Judy Williams Atwater, living with her husband in France, is teaching in the American school there. Mary Sue Moricle, Joyce Hawkins, and Mary Anne Klenner are in an exclusive school for young ladies, while others have joined the Reidsville school system. In the elementary grades are: Sandra Sacrinty, Joanna Hardy, and Myra Hurst; and Frank Shreve, Bobby Martin, and Charlotte Haynes are in the high school.

I was amazed to find so many hospitals represented. Dick Wray is a surgeon; Russell Cobb and Laura Lee Robertson are doctors. DeeJee Hensley, Pat Chrismon, Carol Chilton, and Isa Smith are nurses. Libby Yount, Phyllis Bondurant, Joan Kincaid, Kay Haga, Gloria Roach, and Carolyn Oliver are Laboratory Technician, X-ray Technician, Medical Technologist, Physical Therapist, Medical Librarian, and Anesthetist respectively.

Secretaries were quite plentiful, too. They were: Anna Daniels, Mary Lou Warf, Margaret Worsham, Kathleen Bullock, Lynda Grogan, Shirley Watson, Ann Trotter, Marion Stone, Yvonne Roberts, Claudine Tuttle, Patsy Patterson, Barbara Brown, Brenda Lamb, Joan Griffin, Myrna Comer, and Agatha Jarrell.

I was reminded of the saying "Birds of a feather flock together" when I saw Stephen Ritchie, Garry Soyars, and Grant Koontz, our scientists, talking over the newest atomic developments. In another huddle were our engineers: Allan Colvin (teaching at North Carolina State College), Terry Lovelace (now at General Electric), Wayne Driscoll, Bill Hooper, Jim Taylor, Roger Jones, Glenn Strickland, David Moore, Philip Dixon, and Norma Brooks.

You are not alone in your noble profession either, for Patsy Collie, Jackie Ingram, Carolyn Benfield Williams, Sonyual Hall, Rebecca Evans, Mary Alice Teague, Gincy Scott, Dorothy Rumley, Roberta Shelton, Mary Ann Smith, Jo Ann Mundy, Sandra Groff, and Carolyn Cook are happily married.

Can you imagine how surprised I was when I boarded the plane for Reidsville to find that John McCollum and Forrest Loftis were co-pilots, and Patsy Couch was the stewardess? Nancy Kelly, Frankie Garrett, Barbara Linville, and Jean Hodges are airline hostesses, too.

Joyce Deaton, who is a top fashion designer in New York City, was there with Louise Hinson, her model, and Donna Chaney, her photographer. Also, from New York and the United Nations was Maida Burch, who is an interpreter there. Needless to say, they all looked as if they had stepped out of Vogue.

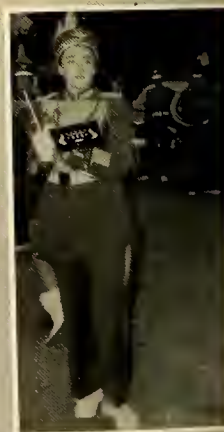

Miss Wootton is proud of Mary Lynn Bowen and Ralph Green, I'm sure, for Mary Lynn's latest book has gone to press, and Ralph writes for a regular TV series.

P.S. I'm enclosing a recent photograph.

Last Will And Testament

State of North Carolina
County of Rockingham
City of Reidsville

We, the Senior Class of 1960 of Reidsville High School, being of sound minds and realizing that our names will soon be recorded among those having departed from this institution of instruction, as one body, soul, and mind do state that the following be recorded and executed as our Last Will and Testament.

Soon, with aspirations that reach the sky and many dreams to realize, we must depart from this happy scene to face many new encumbrances and open new vistas to attain our statue in life. We do hereby, as a body united, bequeath our most cherished adolescent possessions to our remaining benefactors.

Article I

- Sec. 1. We wish to extend our deepest expressions of gratification to the entire faculty and staff for its guidance and help.
- Sec. 2. We wish to express our utmost appreciation to Miss Conley without whom this publication would have been impossible.

Fulfillment

Fulfillment

Fulfillment . . .

At last: the opened door, the swinging gate, the grass on the other side . . .

At last: the graduating blues, the diplomed-gentlemen who preside at this special ceremony. . .

Now it's over . . .

So, let's pack our bags and head the other way . . .

Say: goodbye R. H. S.; I won't forget you in a hurry, but I haven't time for you now; I graduated; that put you out of the running . . .

A long time ago in our early life, we set a pattern of what we'd do and how we'd go about it . . .

Well, we followed that plan, we've come this far . . .

And this is the culmination of the years,
And it's also the culmination of our emotions . . .

Here at R. H. S. we've found time enough for our hope, our stillness, our anxiety, our loneliness, our meditation, our joy, our companionship . . .

And now, our fulfillment . . .

Neal Palmer, Jr.

Before we close the 1960 RENOCAHI we want to thank Miss Conley and the staff for the time and talent they have spent working on this yearbook.

We hope these golden covers hold many happy memories of your school days at Reidsville High School.
